HAS ADJOURNED

VANCOUVER, Wash., September 23.—All the witnesses called for the court martial of Captain A. P. Berry, of the Tenth Infantry, were discharged Friday and the trial was adjourned for two months, in which time important depositions can be secured in the Philippine Islands. So far as can be learned, the court martial has failed to bring out sensational features that were expected. This is said to be due to a postponement taking place immediately prior to a time when important developments in proceedings were looked for.

Notwithstanding this fact, it is estimated that the expense of the hearing has been very great and will run into the thousands of dollars.

There have been many witnesses in attendance, for and against Captain Berry, who is accused, while acting as captain-quartermaster of the transport Sheridan on her trip to San Francisco from the Orient in last March, of breaking into the stateroom of the wife of Lieutenant Mack, of the artillery, and insulting her. Each of the witnesses is allowed transportation from and to the places where they were located, expenses and $3 a day additional.

The numerous witnesses left today for their homes, but have been instructed to be ready to return when called upon. Most of the officers of the Sheridan left today for San Francisco.

Before a postponement was ordered by Captain Bradley, judge advocate of the court, almost the whole of yesterday's session was taken up with the argument of points of law. Several verbal clashes were witnessed between the opposing sides. Whether or not the prosecution should be allowed to introduce the testimony of certain witnesses was the cause of a lengthy and heated debate. Superior Judge W. W. McCredie of Vancouver was finally called on to settle the question.

POPE AND HIGHER CRITIC.

An interesting and remarkable situation was created at the Vatican the other day when the head of the Roman Catholic church gave audience to that eminent Protestant theologian, Professor Charles Briggs, of New York. As was natural, the Pope and his visitor fell into a discussion of religious matters, including the higher criticism and the obstacles to a reunion of the churches. It is reported—but this has been officially denied—that the Pope expressed his intention to modify the rules of the Congregation of the Index and of the Inquisition, and that he said that Catholics might disagree with propositions contained in the famous syllabus of Pius IX. without becoming less good Christians. Even stripped of any such radical declaration, the interview was notable enough to challenge the widest attention. The well known liberality of Professor Briggs, which led to his trial for heresy and his withdrawal from the Presbyterian church, and the conservatism of Pius X. do not appear to have caused any jar in their confab. Frankness and courtesy undoubtedly prevailed all around, and both these antagonists in creed learned to respect each other's personality. Professor Briggs afterward stated that he was deeply impressed by the Pope's sincerity. The incident, while it did not affect either party's belief, contributed somewhat to the "era of good feeling"—Leslie's Weekly.

THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL Pay Patient Department

THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL, PAY PATIENT DEPARTMENT, offers superior accommodations and attendance for pay patients, both in ward and private rooms. The recent "Pauali Annex" addition to the Hospital, with its modern equipped Operating Room, Sterilizing, Anesthetic and Bath Rooms, also Portable Baths, afford an up-to-date service in every respect, with Resident Physician, staff of Trained Nurses, &c., and an Elevator Service. The following are the rates, which include all charges for ordinary medical cases if in charge of the regular Hospital Physicians and Surgeons:

Private rooms, $2.50 to $3.50 per diem. Ward patients, $1.50 per diem. Practicing Physicians are invited to place patients in the Hospital, either in ward or private rooms, such patients to remain under the care of their own physician, subject to the rules of the Hospital; such patients will, however, have to pay their own doctor. Applicants for admission to the Hospital must furnish the Superintendent a surety for Hospital charges, or else pay two weeks in advance, which must be renewed every week thereafter. In Surgical cases a charge of from $5 to $15 is made for use of Operating Room and materials. Surgeons are invited to use the Operating Room of the Hospital under the above specified rates, and arrangements for hours can be made with the Superintendent. Persons desiring admission to the Hospital should apply to the Superintendent, on the premises, Punchbowl and Miller streets.

For further information or reference, apply to the Superintendent or Resident Physician at the Hospital, GEO. W. SMITH, Esq., Secretary (Benson, Smith & Co.), or E. F. BISHOP, Treasurer (C. Brewer & Co.). 7209
